CANCELLATIONS

If there is lightning, severe storms, strong winds or outdoor temperatures are -10 or below without factoring in the windchill, your instructor will likely cancel class, but will always confirm with each student prior to the start of class, via the UCA student Facebook page, or through text/email. If you are unsure if class is being held, please contact your instructor.

PRIVATE LESSONS AND ASSESSMENTS

The owner understands and agrees that failure to give the Company 24 hours notice of a lesson cancellation for private lessons and assessments, will result in a $20 cancellation fee owed by the owner to the Company for said cancelled lesson and must be paid by the day said lessons was meant to be held.

With a notice of 24 hours or more, said lesson or assessment may be re-scheduled to a later date.

If your trainer cannot make it to class due to inclement weather, said lesson or assessment may be re-scheduled to a later date or a full refund will be issued.

GROUP OBEDIENCE LESSONS

For group lessons, Uxbridge Canine Academy must be notified before the start of the month for lessons that cannot be attended, otherwise said lesson will be considered forfeit.

In the event of cancellation due to inclement weather, lessons will resume the following week.

GROUP AGILITY LESSONS

For group agility lessons, cancellation within 24 hours by the owner will be considered forfeit and no refund will be issued for the cancelled lesson, as rental for facility time still needs to be paid for. If more than 24 hours notice of cancellation occurs, a full refund or credit towards the next months classes will be issued.

If your trainer cannot make it to class due to inclement weather, a full refund or credit towards next months classes will be issued.

Failure to do so will be cause for immediate dismissal from the property and from class without any refunds.

MISCELLANEOUS

The owner is also responsible for purchasing all necessary equipment that the trainer recommends for training the dog(s) as well as a mask if the owner chooses.
